On schooldays, William wakes up at 6.30. He has a wash and gets dressed. At 7.30 he has breakfast. He usually has cornflakes, bread and tea. He leaves home at 8.15 and goes to school by bike.

He usually arrives at school at 8.45. He has lessons until lunch time. Lunch time at school is from 12.30 to 1.30.

In the afternoons he has more lessons or plays basketball. He normally gets home at 4.00. He and his parents have dinner at 8.00.

In the evenings, William does his homework, watches TV, or meets his friends. They talk about their plans for the weekend.

My name's Fred. I live in London and I'm 17 years old.

I wake up at 7 and I usually get out of bed about 7.30. Then, I come downstairs and have breakfast. Usually I have cereal for breakfast with orange juice but sometimes I have a toast with usually jam or honey. Then I pack my bag for school. I walk because my school is only in the centre of the town where I live so it's only a 15-minute walk in the morning, which is good because it means I can sleep later.

The school is quite old, it's been a school for about 400 years and it's got about 1000 students. there are 7 age groups and it's only boys there. School starts at 8.30 and then we have two lessons which go until 10.15. At 10.45 we have a break for 15 minutes. Then, from 11 to 12.40, we have two more lessons, and then lunchtime. I can go into town to get my lunch, but most people have to stay in the school and eat the school food and British school food isn't very nice. Then, we have two more lessons after lunch and we finish school at 3.30.

Usually I come home and I just sort of relax for a bit, and that's usually for maybe an hour. I read or I watch television. My mum gets home between 5.30 and 6 and so we'll usually eat dinner about 6.30.
